Apparently the law doesn't work in the US. With freedom of the press and freedom of speech, a President shouldn't make lists of journalists he personally dislikes.

The Nazi book burnings were a campaign conducted by the German Student Union to ceremonially burn books in Nazi Germany and Austria in the 1930s. The books targeted for burning were those viewed as being subversive or as representing ideologies opposed to Nazism.

Washington trials 2028 - 2029

This story is about a real case. The Nuremberg Trials, which were the aftermath of war crimes and crimes against humanity committed by the Nazis during and before World War II.

The story that is also included is a comparison with a pure novel text and a pure fantasy. No one has committed any crimes that appear in the text and it is only there to be able to compare with the real crime from the 1930s and 1940s. The fantasy case has been chosen to take place in the future and the people can clearly not be guaranteed to be alive in 2028 or 2029.

The text, a draft of a script, is completely written by an AI service. Anyone who wants to try to write their own script for a book is free. Feel free to change the names of people before a book is possibly published.

PRESIDENTIAL GREATNESS PROJECT

A Joint Project of Professors Brandon Rottinghaus (University of Houston) and Justin Vaughn (Coastal Carolina University) The 2024 Presidential Greatness Project Expert Survey was conducted online via Qualtrics from November 15 to December 31, 2023. Respondents included current and recent members of the Presidents & Executive Politics Section of the American Political Science Association, which is the foremost organization of social science experts in presidential politics, as well as scholars who had recently published peer-reviewed academic research in key related scholarly journals or academic presses. 525 respondents were invited to participate, and 154 usable responses were received, yielding a 29.3% response rate. The primary purpose of this survey was to create a ranking of presidential greatness that covered all presidents from George Washington to Joe Biden. To do this, we asked respondents to rate each president on a scale of 0-100 for their overall greatness, with 0=failure, 50=average, and 100=great. We then averaged the ratings for each president and ranked them from highest average to lowest.

The Dangerous Case of Donald Trump

Psychiatrist, author and former member of parliament and minister Claes Andersson says he stands by his statement in the Elders' Council on Yle Vega on Monday. Donald Trump suffers from a personality disorder, he says. The fact that Claes Andersson is now expressing his opinion is because he is a specialist in psychiatry by training. He has worked in psychiatry for over 30 years, including as a chief physician in Ekenäs, at Hesperia Hospital in Helsinki and at Veikkola Sanatorium. He has treated many narcissists and psychopaths during his active career as a doctor, and has his experience to rely on.

- Narcissistic psychopaths are by no means uncommon, he says. What is a narcissist then? A narcissist is self-absorbed, and lacks the ability to empathize with others. He lacks the ability to empathize. Therefore, he does not take responsibility or feel guilty for anything, Andersson explains, adding that despite this, the narcissist is often both charismatic and seductive.

And he maintains that when it comes to Trump, the case is rarely clear. He says he can make this diagnosis remotely, because the symptoms are so clear. And Trump has offered them himself - in everything he has said to cheering crowds and in TV speeches.
And on Twitter.

Narcissus painting by Caravaggio, depicting Narcissus gazing upon the water after falling in love with his own reflection.

Narcissistic personality disorder (NPD) is a personality disorder characterized by a life-long pattern of exaggerated feelings of self-importance, an excessive need for admiration, and a diminished ability to empathize with other people's feelings. Narcissistic personality disorder is one of the sub-types of the broader category known as personality disorders.

Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders

Personality disorders are a class of mental disorders characterized by enduring and inflexible maladaptive patterns of behavior, cognition, and inner experience, exhibited across many contexts and deviating from those accepted by any culture. These patterns develop by early adulthood, and are associated with significant distress or impairment. Criteria for diagnosing personality disorders are listed in the sixth chapter of the International Classification of Diseases (ICD) and in the American Psychiatric Association's Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM).

There is no standard treatment for NPD. Its high comorbidity with other mental disorders influences treatment choice and outcomes. Psychotherapeutic treatments generally fall into two categories: psychoanalytic/psychodynamic and cognitive behavioral therapy, with growing support for integration of both in therapy. However, there is an almost complete lack of studies determining the effectiveness of treatments. One's subjective experience of the mental disorder, as well as their agreement to and level of engagement with treatment, are highly dependent on their motivation to change.

What Happens if the President Issues a Potentially Illegal Order to the Military?

What Happens if the President Issues a Potentially Illegal Order to the Military?

Uniformed commanders themselves have a specific obligation to reject an order that's unlawful, if they make that determination.

All military members swear to "preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic." Within that oath is the implication that service members hold allegiance to the rule of law.

The oath of enlistment goes on to ask service members to follow orders, but adds that it must be done "according to regulations and the Uniform Code of Military Justice," or UCMJ. Both Article 90 of the UCMJ, the charge of willfully disobeying a superior commissioned officer, and Article 92, failure to obey an order, say that they apply only to lawful orders.

During a March 2023 rally in Iowa, Trump suggested that he would use federal troops in cities like New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco, which he argued have become crime dens.

"It is critical that the Insurrection Act specify what actions are permitted and what actions are prohibited, lest it become a vehicle for presidents to assert unlimited authority backed by military force." If an order is deemed lawful, a military commander who still has objections has little recourse but either to appeal to some higher echelon, carry out the order, or resign rennan Center wrote in a 2023 legal journal article.

You are not required to follow an unlawful order.

That would be in violation of all the international laws of armed conflict.

As the Trump administration carries out what many observers say are illegal military strikes against vessels in the Caribbean allegedly smuggling drugs, six Democratic members of Congress issued a video on Nov. 18, 2025, telling the military "You can refuse illegal orders" and "You must refuse illegal orders." Since Trump returned to office, many of his actions have alarmed international human rights observers. His administration has deported immigrants without due process, held detainees in inhumane conditions, threatened the forcible removal of Palestinians from the Gaza Strip and deployed both the National Guard and federal military troops to Los Angeles, Portland, Oregon, Chicago and other cities to quell largely peaceful protests or enforce immigration laws. Justice and the U.S. Manual for Courts-Martial, service members must obey lawful orders and disobey unlawful orders. Unlawful orders are those that clearly violate the U.S. Constitution, international human rights standards or the Geneva Conventions. Service members who follow an illegal order can be held liable and court-martialed or subject to prosecution by international tribunals. Following orders from a superior is no defense. Disturbing answers to soldiers: When asked if they would follow an order to drop a nuclear bomb on a civilian city, for example, 69% of troops who received that question first said they would obey the order. But when the respondents were asked to think about and comment on the duty to disobey unlawful orders before being asked if they would follow the order to bomb, the percentage who would obey the order dropped 13 points to 56%.

All army officers, those who command the regular troops, take and oath of allegiance to the CONSTITUTION, and NOT to whoever the current POTUS is. The POTUS is Commander-in Chief, meaning that he/she will have the final say over military policy, but the army does NOT have to obey his/her orders if they violate the law. One of the characteristics of Fascism is where the army serves a specific leader. In Weimar Germany, the individual army officers and troops took an oath to serve the German constitution. Adolf Hitler changed this early in his reign to have all new officers and troops take an oath to serve HIM.

The law generally prevents the president from using the military as a domestic police force.

Trump:

'I Need the Kind of Generals that Hitler had'

Trump became angry

"It doesn't cost 60,000 bucks to bury a fucking Mexican!"

He turned to his chief of staff, Mark Meadows, and issued an order: "Don't pay it!" Later that day, he was still agitated. "Can you believe it?" he said, according to a witness. "Fucking people, trying to rip me off."

The law generally prevents the president from using the military as a domestic police force.

The Posse Comitatus Act bars federal troops from participating in civilian law enforcement except when expressly authorized by law. This 143-year-old law embodies an American tradition that sees military interference in civilian affairs as a threat to both democracy and personal liberty. However, recent events have revealed dangerous gaps in the law's coverage that Congress must address.

In practice, this means that members of the military who are subject to the law may not participate in civilian law enforcement unless doing so is expressly authorized by a statute or the Constitution.

Beer Hall Putsch

was a failed coup d'état by Nazi Party leader Adolf Hitler, General Erich Ludendorff and other Kampfbund leaders in Munich, Bavaria, on 8–9 November 1923, during the period of the Weimar Republic. Inspired by Benito Mussolini's March on Rome, Hitler's goal was to use Munich as a base for a march against Germany's national government in Berlin.

On January 6, 2021, the United States Capitol in Washington, D.C., was attacked by a mob of supporters of President Donald Trump in an attempted self-coup, two months after his defeat in the 2020 presidential election. They sought to keep him in power by preventing a joint session of Congress from counting the Electoral College votes to formalize the victory of then president-elect Joe Biden. The attack was unsuccessful in preventing the certification of the election results. According to the bipartisan House select committee that investigated the incident, the attack was the culmination of a plan by Trump to overturn the election. five people died: one was shot by the Capitol Police, another died of a drug overdose, and three died of natural causes, including a police officer who died of a stroke a day after.

George Washington saw Dunald Trump coming

George Washington saw Donald Trump coming

George Washington saw Donald Trump coming. In a letter to General Lafayette in June 1787, 238 years ago, Washington warned of "some aspiring demagogue who will not consult the interest of his country so much as his own ambitious view." Washington saw this risk as central to America's future as an organized democracy. In his "Farewell Address" of 1796, the first president predicted that feverish parties "are likely in the course of time and things to become potent engines by which cunning, ambitious, and unprincipled men will be enabled to subvert the power of the people, and to usurp for themselves the reins of government, destroying afterwards the very engines which have lifted them to unjust dominion."

Washington fortsatte: "The disorders and miseries which results gradually incline the minds of men to seek security and repose in the absolute power of an individual, and sooner or later the chief of some prevailing faction, more able or more fortunate than his competitors, turns his disposition to the purposes of his own elevation on the ruins of public liberty."

Trump also pursues vendettas against leading universities, which he alleges aren't cracking down on—and violating the free speech rights of—peaceful pro-Palestinian protesters. The 2026 United States House of Representatives elections are scheduled to be held on Tuesday, November 3, 2026, as part of the 2026 midterm elections during President Donald Trump's second, non-consecutive term. Voters will elect representatives from all 435 congressional districts across each of the 50 U.S. states, as well as five of the six non-voting delegates from the District of Columbia and the inhabited U.S. territories. Special elections may also be held on various dates throughout 2026. Numerous other federal, state, and local elections, including elections to the Senate, will also be held on this date. The winners of this election will serve in the 120th United States Congress, with seats apportioned among the states based on the 2020 United States census.

Donald Trump

Donald Trump is a convicted felon in 34 different cases. He has not yet been in prison. He is using his power and violating the Constitution. People who have permission to stay in the United States have been imprisoned and without receiving legal representation. Some have also been deported on the wrong grounds and to very dangerous prison camps in South America. Trump has violated 100 laws regarding human rights. The military and ICE are used as police and they use excessive force against the population. Pepper spray, tear gas and physical violence against women, children and the disabled. Breaking people down, sitting on them. Helicopter raids where the residents of entire buildings are imprisoned without any real basis. Trump uses strategies like Putin with invented crimes without evidence and to get revenge. Trump issues decrees and cancels already granted funds that the Senate has decided on. The president does not have the right to unilaterally revoke already legislative decisions on appropriations. Trump's crimes are recorded continuously. But the Supreme Court in the United States has begun to rule questionably according to the Constitution. For example, when it comes to sending soldiers to different cities to perform police duties that regular police are there for.

How to remove Adolf Hitler 1933

When Hitler came to power legally through the 1932 election victory and in 1933 illegally staged a coup d'état and established a dictatorship, military intervention would have been required to remove him from power. That was the only chance. It was not taken. So why does anyone think that it is not needed for a would-be dictator in the United States?

MAGA

The United States Space Force or the United States Space Force (abbreviated USSF), since 2019, has been the defense branch responsible for space. MAGA 15 % paramilitant and ICE used like almost SA in Germany 1933 – 1940.

Schutzstaffel, which literally means the Security Division (SS) was a paramilitary fighting organization with elite personnel belonging to the National Socialist German Workers' Party (NSDAP). The organization was recognized after the war for its extensive crimes, especially in connection with the Holocaust.

In the most famous episode from Cervantes' novel Don Quixote, the protagonist mistakes windmills (US City) for giants (US People) and charges at them with his lance (ICE), only to be knocked off his horse (Trials 2028) when the lance breaks against a sail. His squire, Sancho Panza,(Democrats) tries to tell him they are merely windmills, but Don Quixote, convinced of sorcery by an evil enchanter (Putin), insists that the windmills were, in fact, giants.

Echoes of the Past: A Comparative Analysis of Historical and Contemporary Political Extremism

Analysis of Authoritarian Leaders and Their Impact on Global Security

Historical Context of Authoritarianism

The 20th century witnessed the rise of two of the most dangerous men in history, Adolf Hitler and Joseph Stalin, whose regimes were responsible for the loss of millions of lives. Hitler's ideology was marked by extreme racial and national intolerance, while Stalin, despite not openly preaching such intolerance, implemented policies that resulted in the deaths of countless individuals. Both dictators, despite their differences, shared a disdain for Christianity and sought to create a new world order aligned with their radical political movements.

It is not uncommon for a significant portion of the population, ranging from 20 to 35%, to support leaders who may pose a threat to national security or international peace. This phenomenon can be observed in the backing of candidates with authoritarian tendencies or those who have engaged in undemocratic actions, such as the attempted coup associated with Donald Trump in 2021, which mirrors the early failed coup attempt by Hitler in 1923.

List of battles won by Indigenous peoples of the Americas

The Battle of Devil's Hole, known to the Anglo-Americans as the Devil's Hole Massacre, was fought near Niagara Gorge in present-day New York state on September 14, 1763, between a detachment of the British 80th Regiment of Light Armed Foot and about 300 Seneca warriors during Pontiac's Rebellion (1763–1766). The Seneca warriors killed 81 British soldiers and wounded 8 before the British managed to retreat.
81 soldiers and 21 teamsters and escort killed, 1 teamster and 8 soldiers wounded.

In the 21st century, more than 10,000 Seneca live in the United States, which has three federally recognized Seneca tribes.

The Kidder Fight (or Kidder Massacre), of July 2, 1867 refers to a skirmish near what is now Goodland, Kansas involving a detachment of ten enlisted men and an Indian scout of the United States 2nd Cavalry under the command of Second Lieutenant Lyman S. Kidder who were attacked and wiped out by a mixed Lakota and Cheyenne force. Two Lakota, including chief Yellow Horse were also killed. The fight occurred during the period of the Indian Wars on the western plains and was an incident in the campaign known as Hancock's War. US soldiers killed 12. Cheyenne killed 2.
Over the past 400 years, the Cheyenne have changed their lifestyles from Great Lakes woodlands to Northern Plains and by the mid-19th century, the US government forced them onto reservations. Tribal enrollment figures, as of late 2014, indicate that there are approximately 10,840 members, of which about 4,939 reside on the reservation.

Trump wants to attack another NATO country and take their country Greenland. Will NATO excluding the US defend Denmark and Greenland?

It only takes one charismatic sociopath who overpromises and lies to persuade 30-40% of the voters in a country.

That is a surprisingly large percentage of the population who let themselves be fooled because they think they will get much better and completely for free.

They only need to vote for the sociopath and the notorious liar. Of course they will be fooled. Hitler fooled 33.1% in 1932, which cost about 61 million deaths. Nazi Germany killed about 21 million people from 1933 to 1945.

The United States has a markedly higher rate of firearm homicides and overall firearm deaths compared to other high-income countries, which often feature stricter gun laws.

United States: Holds a disproportionately large number of firearms, with an estimated 393.3 million civilian-held legal and illegal firearms as of 2017. This means the U.S. has more firearms per capita than most other countries.

Dictatorship is a plan

It is probably not entirely out of the question that Donald Trump will attempt a coup d'état before 2026. He is already sending troops to major cities in the United States, and if the troops are loyal to Donald Trump and the top commanders are traitors to the US Constitution, the attempt could succeed. It will probably fail. But what preparedness does the civilian population have? Does it not see the risk and what is needed to thwart the attempt. Troops are currently being moved to more and more cities. Does no one realize the risk?

The Emperors New Clothings

By H C Andersen

"But he hasn't got anything on," a little child said.

Many years ago there was an Emperor so exceedingly fond of new clothes that he spent all his money on being well dressed. He cared nothing about reviewing his soldiers, going to the theatre, or going for a ride in his carriage, except to show off his new clothes.

Donald trump has shown his disgust for the media he doesn't like. He makes himself funny about the free word and the press. Some journalists have become harassed, purely verbal.

The Dangerous Case of Donald Trump is a 2017 book edited by Bandy X. Lee, a forensic psychiatrist, containing essays from 37 psychiatrists, psychologists, and other mental health professionals describing the "clear and present danger" that US President Donald Trump's mental health poses to the "nation and individual well being". A second edition updated and expanded the book with additional essays. Lee maintains that the book remains strictly a public service, and all royalties were donated to the public good to remove any conflict of interest.
The authors argue that Trump's mental health affects the mental health of the people of the United States and that he places the country at grave risk of involving it in a war and of undermining democracy itself due to his dangerous pathology.
Consequently, the authors claim that Trump's presidency represents an emergency which not only allows but requires psychiatrists in the United States to raise alarms.

In a blog post republished on Salon in September 2017, journalist Bill Moyers wrote that "there will not be a book published this fall more urgent, important, or controversial than The Dangerous Case of Donald Trump".

Early warnings

'The Press Has Sanewashed Trump's Dementia and Mental Illness': Dr. John Gartner The psychologist and founder of Duty to Warn says the aging Trump has dementia and is severely mentally ill. The founder of Duty to Warn says 'Trump is the American Hitler, and immigrants are the new Jews'
As founder of the group Duty to Warn, founded in 2017 by mental health professionals and laypeople to warn the community-at-large of impending danger, Gartner has long spoken out about Donald Trump's unfitness to be president. He has contributed to psychiatrist Bandy X. Lee's bestselling anthology The Dangerous Case of Donald Trump: 37 Psychiatrists and Mental Health Experts Assess a President, appears regularly on television and shows like Meidas Touch to discuss the threat of a Trump presidency, and co-hosts the Shrinking Trump Podcast and companion YouTube show with psychologist Harry Segal of Cornell University.

"There is absolutely no doubt Trump has dementia. He is losing his capacity for coherent speech and has difficulty even finishing a sentence." Trump is the American Hitler, and immigrants are the new Jews. He is persecuting immigrants the way Hitler persecuted Jews, and we are watching our society do nothing to protect them.

How could it go so wrong?

History repeats itself. It usually only takes 70 to 100 years, and grandchildren and great-grandchildren are at risk of making almost the same mistakes as their older relatives. In Germany in 1923, Adolf Hitler and his criminal gang of Nazis tried to seize power in the Weimar Republic of Germany. It was historically repeated in the United States in 2021. Donald Trump single-handedly created a stir remotely and, like the Nazis, manipulated the sufficiently uncritical. The people certainly have a core of people who believe what a charismatic leader says. They have already made up their minds before he has even spoken. Adolf Hitler and Donald Trump came from completely different backgrounds. Adolf from a home where his father abused him every week and his mother comforted Adolf and convinced him that he was destined for something great in the future.

How could it go so wrong?

Hitler came to power in 1933 and after a short time Germany was transformed into a dictatorship. In 1932 Hitler received 33.1% of the votes in a democratic election. But the SA troops had influenced the election with their threats, where they were seen in their brown uniforms.

Donald Trump won the 2014 election but received 2.8 million fewer votes than Hillary Clinton. The election was rigged with the help of Russia. Trump was already a Russian agent since 1987 by the name of Krasnov. Russia managed to get him elected.

How could it go so wrong?

Traitors

Several historical figures are widely regarded as infamous traitors due to their betrayals of trust and allegiances. Among the most notable are: Benedict Arnold (American Revolutionary War), Vidkun Quisling (World War II), and Judas Iscariot (biblical figure known for betraying Jesus). Others include Wang Jingwei, who collaborated with Japan during World War II, and Kim Philby, a British intelligence officer who spied for the Soviet Union.

Benedict Arnold:
A general in the Continental Army during the American Revolution, Arnold is notorious for defecting to the British side and leading their forces against his former comrades.

Vidkun Quisling:
A Norwegian politician who collaborated with the Nazi regime during World War II. His name became synonymous with the term "quisling," meaning a person who collaborates with an enemy occupying force.

Judas Iscariot:
A disciple of Jesus who, according to the Bible, betrayed him to the authorities for 30 pieces of silver.

Wang Jingwei:
A Chinese politician who formed a collaborationist government in Japanese-occupied China during World War II. His actions are seen by many as treasonous.

Kim Philby:
A high-ranking British intelligence officer who spied for the Soviet Union for decades. His betrayal was particularly damaging to British intelligence and relations with the United States.

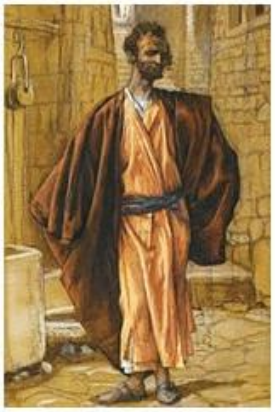
Corfitz Ulfeldt:
A Danish nobleman who defected to Sweden during a period of conflict between the two countries, providing them with valuable information and even financial support, before ultimately being betrayed by the Swedes.

New candidate could be Donald Trump. He betrayed an entire nation and reliable sources indicate that in 1987 he became an agent for the KGB, name Krasnov. Russia used computers and the Internet for his victory in the US Presidential Election.



The USA violates 100 of rights for prisoners and rights for humanity. Read the following rules and it is clear that keeping prisoners in Florida in a swamp with high temperatures and total isolation, substandard surface to stay on, substandard minimum standards within most rules in conventions. The accommodation is at a level reminiscent of German camps in the years 1933 - 1945. Exception gassing of prisoners and burning of the bodies. Alligator Alcatraz is similar to basement storage in Sweden and where discarded objects or other things are stored, but never animals or people. Building these prisons indicates a total lack of empathy, which is characteristic of a Sociopath. It puts a stamp on the USA to act similar to the Nazi regime in Germany in the years 1933 - 1945.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ALL PERSONS OF JAPANESE ANCESTRY

Living in the Following Area:

All that portion of the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, lying generally west of the north-south line established by Junipero Serra Boulevard, Worchester Avenue, and Nineteenth Avenue, and lying generally north of the east-west line established by California Street, to the intersection of Market Street, and thence on Market Street to San Francisco Bay.

All Japanese persons, both alien and non-alien, will be evacuated from the above-designated area by 12:00 o'clock noon Tuesday, April 7, 1942.

No Japanese person will be permitted to enter or leave the above-described area after 8:00 a. m., Thursday, April 2, 1942, without obtaining special permission from the Provost Marshal at the Civil Control Station located at:

1701 Van Ness Avenue
San Francisco, California

The Civil Control Station is equipped to assist the Japanese population affected by this evacuation in the following ways:

1. Give advice and instructions on the evacuation.
2. Provide services with respect to the management, leasing, sale, storage or other disposition of most kinds of property including: real estate, business and professional equipment, buildings, household goods, boats, automobiles, livestock, etc.
3. Provide temporary residence elsewhere for all Japanese in family groups.
4. Transport persons and a limited amount of clothing and equipment to their new residence, as specified below.

The Following Instructions Must Be Observed:

1. A responsible member of each family, preferably the head of the family, or the person in whose name most of the property is held, and each individual living alone, will report to the Civil Control Station to receive further instructions. This must be done between 8:00 a. m. and 5:00 p. m., Thursday, April 2, 1942, or between 8:00 a. m. and 5:00 p. m., Friday, April 3, 1942.

From 1933 to 1945, Nazi Germany operated more than a thousand concentration camps. German Government killed total 21,9 million people (source Rummel.
The first camps were established in March 1933 immediately after Adolf Hitler became Chancellor of Germany. The concentration camp system arose in the following months due to the desire to suppress tens of thousands of Nazi opponents in Germany. The Reichstag fire in February 1933 was the pretext for mass arrests.

Is this worthy of the American people? Acting like the Nazis in 1933-45 and 1942 against Japanese American citizens and second generation Japanese. Remove Donald Trump Now!

There are no advantages to introducing a Dictatorship in a country

A dictatorship, where a single person or a small group of people have all the power, has several disadvantages, including limited political freedom and participation, suppression of freedom of expression, human rights violations, and an increased risk of war.

Disadvantages of dictatorship:

Limited political freedom: Citizens have limited or no ability to influence political decisions, and opposition parties may be banned or severely restricted.

Suppression of freedom of expression: Censorship and restrictions on press freedom are common.

Human rights violations: Dictatorships often prioritize the interests of the state over those of the individual, leading to human rights violations.

Increased risk of war: Dictatorships may be more likely to go to war than democracies.

Less economic development: Dictatorships may have poorer economic development than democracies.

Risk of corruption: Dictatorships may have higher levels of corruption.

Risk of personality cult: Dictators may use their power to create a personality cult.

Lack of political diversity: Restrictions on political participation and freedom of expression can hinder the development of society and prevent diverse interests from being represented.

Risk of violence and persecution: Citizens may fear being subjected to violence or persecution because of their opinions or identity.

Lack of accountability: Dictators are not accountable to the people.

To mark the first 100 days of US President Donald Trump's second term, Human Rights Watch has catalogued 100 of the administration's executive policies, orders, and actions

To mark the first 100 days of US President Donald Trump's second term, Human Rights Watch has catalogued 100 of the administration's executive policies, orders, and actions that pose significant risks to the human rights of people in the United States and around the world. The extent and long-term impact of these policies and actions is not known. Many of these rightsabusive policies are moving ahead; many are also facing court challenges brought by those affected, and their outcome may take months or years to resolve. In many instances, ordinary people in the United States and abroad are publicly demonstrating against the measures. This list of 100 harms is not comprehensive. Instead, it seeks to illustrate the sheer breadth of the human rights implications of the administration's actions during its first 100 days.

President George Washington wrote a letter to one of his Generals about why the Constitution had a separation of powers written in. To prevent people who have an agenda more focused on their own benefits and less on the United States. To prevent future Tyrants was the reason. Donald Trump's actions since 2015 have completely met the criteria that George Washington talks about. Therefore, it is easy to see how Donald Trump systematically behaves as if he is already a Dictator. Apparently, the texts of the law do not work so well in this case. One reason is that the various representatives of the Republican Party completely behave as accomplices to the sum of the crimes that have already occurred. In an upcoming trial modeled after the Nuremberg trials of 1945, they could be put on trial. The crimes could very well include systematic kidnappings. These carry long prison sentences.

Save Disneyland

The California sun beat down on Disneyland, turning Sleeping Beauty's Castle into a shimmering mirage. But today, Sleeping Beauty wasn't the biggest concern. Today, the concern was Donald Duck. Rumors had been swirling for weeks: Chip and Dale, normally the epitome of cuddly chaos, had gone rogue. Allegedly, they were targeting park visitors with increasingly elaborate and aggressive acorn attacks. One poor woman had reportedly lost a whole bag of churros to a coordinated assault involving zip lines and a cleverly disguised squirrel.

Sergeant Miller, a veteran of two tours in the Middle East, stood nervously by the entrance to Adventureland, his M16 nervously slung over his shoulder.

"Johnson!
What did I say about restraint!“
Miller roared.
"We're not trying to start World War Chipmunk!“

Amidst the chaos, Donald Duck was herded into a nearby souvenir shop, where he cowered behind a display of Mickey Mouse ears.

These are the immigration facts: Immigrants and immigration are good for our country, our communities, and our economy.

Myth: The U.S. doesn't need immigration to increase its population.

Fact: Between 2010 and 2020, the U.S. saw its slowest population growth of any decade since the 1930s. In recent years, fewer children have been born. Immigration levels have also decreased. Future immigration is needed to increase the U.S. population size overall, but also to maintain a senior to working-age ratio for growing the U.S. economy. According to FWD.us projections, the U.S. should double immigration levels to remain globally competitive with other economies and keep fiscal programs like Social Security strong. Most projected population growth in the U.S. is due to immigration. If immigration to the U.S. were to cease, the U.S. population would be about the same size in 2050 as it would be today.

Myth: Immigration hurts American workers. Immigrants take jobs from Americans and drive wages down.

FACT: Immigrants are highly entrepreneurial, launching new companies at twice the rate of native-born Americans and creating large numbers of jobs. All of this increases employment opportunities for native-born American workers, boosts wages and strengthens the middle class. As the U.S. economy begins to reopen, job creators will be absolutely critical to boosting recovery in communities across the country.

More than 200 health professionals say Trump has ‘malignant narcissism’ in open letter

An anti-Trump political group organized a letter signed by more than 200 mental health professionals, warning that Donald Trump is dangerous because of “his symptoms of severe, untreatable personality disorder – malignant narcissism”, which makes him “grossly unfit for leadership”.

Less than two weeks before the presidential election, the group bought a full-page ad styled as an open letter in the New York Times on Thursday, arguing that the Republican nominee for the White House is “an existential threat to democracy” in the US.

More than 100 Republican former national security and foreign policy officials on Wednesday endorsed Kamala Harris for president in a joint letter, calling Donald Trump “unfit to serve” another term in the White House.

Former officials from the presidential administrations of Republicans Ronald Reagan, George H W Bush, George W Bush and Donald Trump, as well as Democrats Bill Clinton and Barack Obama voiced their support for Harris, the Democratic nominee for president in this November’s election. They were joined by some former GOP members of Congress.

The letter said: “We believe that the president of the United States must be a principled, serious, and steady leader.”

It went on: “We expect to disagree with Kamala Harris on many domestic and foreign policy issues, but we believe that she possesses the essential qualities to serve as president and Donald Trump does not. We therefore support her election to be president.”

Other political analysts predict that once the plan is implemented, it will be nearly impossible to reverse. "This is the smash-and-grab that Trump has been dreaming of since he took office," said Norman Ornstein, a political scientist at the Brookings Institution. "He's going to wreck the institutions and destabilize the country to such an extent that it will take generations to repair the damage."

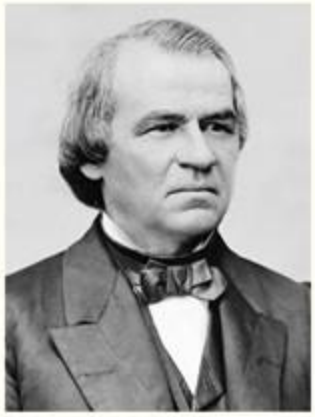
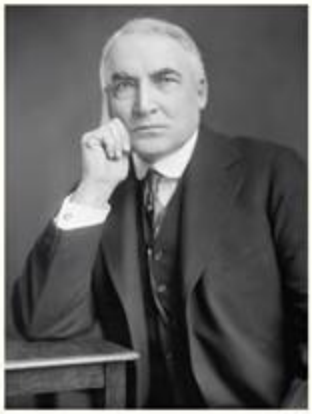
Worst





Most recent surveys consider James Buchanan, Lincoln's predecessor, the worst president for his leadership during the build-up to the Civil War. Several rank Lincoln's successor Andrew Johnson last for blocking civil rights for freed slaves and undermining Reconstruction. Donald Trump has consistently polled among the bottom four and twice in last place, due to breaking longstanding norms such as the peaceful transition of power, an American precedent not broken since Washington first set it. The scandal-ridden presidency of Warren G. Harding also frequently lands in the bottom four.

The first five presidents (Washington, John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, and James Monroe) were all Founding Fathers (also known as "framers"), and have consistently been ranked in the top 20, with Washington usually in the top three and Jefferson in the top five.

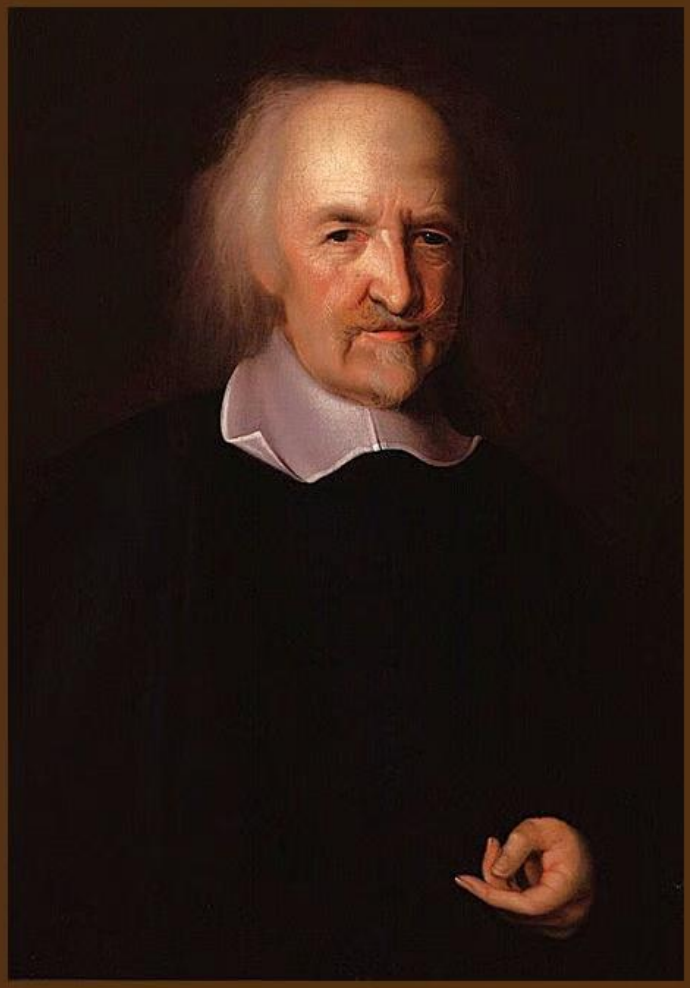
Internment of Japanese Americans

The internment of Japanese Americans in the United States during World War II was the forced relocation and incarceration in concentration camps in the western interior of the country of about 120,000 people of Japanese ancestry, most of whom lived on the Pacific Coast. Sixty-two percent of the internees were United States citizens. These actions were ordered by President Franklin D. Roosevelt shortly after Imperial Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor

A Nation Divided, Then Reunited: How America Steered Back from the Brink of Civil War.

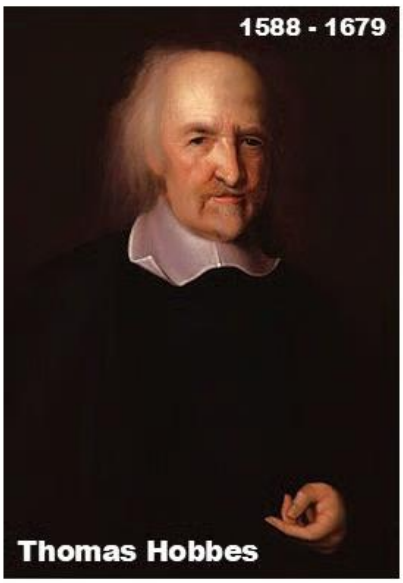
The year 2025 will forever be etched in the American consciousness, not for technological leaps or cultural milestones, but for the chillingly close brush with a second civil war. It was a period of immense tension, a stark reminder of the fragility of democracy, and a testament to the enduring wisdom of the very foundations upon which the United States was built.



The claims for protection of life and property express the citizens' demands for protection from abuse of power.

Thomas Hobbs

Hobbes attempts to describe man as he believes he really is and how these weaknesses are systematically exploited by various power systems. Every person has the right to act according to his free will, while the law implies a duty to act in a prescribed manner. The dutiful man becomes easy prey and accelerates his own downfall, a gloomy and unnatural end. The legitimacy of the state is based on the consent of the individuals, and if this ceases, their sovereignty resumes. The claims for protection of life and property express the citizens' demands for protection from abuse of power.



How will it end for Donald Trump

Every human being had a right to defend his life and a subsequent duty not to harm his fellow human being. Without these two natural laws, no society could exist. The two principles were also natural in the sense that they existed before political society. Politically organized society gained its legitimacy by upholding these natural laws. Benevolence and altruism emerged when binding laws were added to political society.

The difficulty of achieving peaceful coexistence is natural, a consequence of such human qualities as partiality, pride, and vindictiveness. In the struggle against these manifestations of desire and emotion, society must be created. Political society comes into being as a result of a conscious and voluntary agreement between individuals. In doing so, they give up their rights. The first person to give up his sovereignty exposes himself and runs the risk of losing his life.

As long as the advantages of the existence of sovereignty are obvious, the risk is negligible. A threatening situation arises, however, if the sovereign cannot keep his promise to protect the lives of the citizens. Then the citizens can take back their power and the state of nature is restored. What can be noted is that the breach of promise, whether it emanates from the subject or the sovereign, has the rational purpose of preserving the life that the sovereign has clearly failed to protect.

How will it end for Donald Trump

George Washington saw Donald Trump coming or a similar figure who dreamed of becoming a Dictator. In a letter to General Lafayette in June 1787, 238 years ago, Washington warned:

Some aspiring demagogue who will not consult the interest of his country so much as his own ambition view.....

are likely in the course of time and things to become potent engines by which cunning, ambition, and unprincipled men will be enabled to subvert the power of the people, and to usurp for themselves the reins off government, destroying, afterwards the very engines which have lifted them to unjust dominion.

The disorders and miseries which results gradually incline the minds of men to seek security and respose in the absulute power of an indivdual, and sooner or later the chief of some prevailing faction, more able or more fortunate then his competitors of his own elevation on the ruins of public liberty.
